

Application for Board Member-at-Large

Members of the Washington Association for Middle Level Education (WAMLE) are teachers, administrators, parents, social workers, counselors, college students, university personnel, elected and appointed officials of state government, students and other individuals interested in understanding the development of young adolescents. As an affiliate of the National Middle School Association, the purpose of WAMLE is to advocate for the general improvement of education for middle level students in the State of Washington. The duties of Board Members-at-Large are to assist the officers in conducting the business of the Association, to attend all Board meetings, to plan and participate in all activities sponsored by the Association, and to communicate regularly with their constituencies. Applications will be accepted through May 12, 2010. (Electronic version is available through the WAMLE website.)
